

ZOOM SETS UP WAN IN RECORD TIME

Zoom Technologies bagged this prestigious order against stiff competition from international network giants and implemented it in a record time of 38 days, the first of its kind in the country.

This particular campus network had complex requirements as it involved a large air force station with over 140 aircraft constantly landing and taking off. We had to make sure that landings and take offs were not disturbed due to interference from the components used to establish the network.